

Our mandate

The European Union Monitoring Mission's mandate is to contribute to stabilisation normalisation

and confidence building

Within our normalisation work one task is to improve the security and wellbeing of women. There are many organizations that provide assistance but many women lack information on their rights as well as on how to receive support. The EUMM can:

- Identify and follow up on post-conflict related issues for women;
- Act as a support by referring cases to local authorities, national and international agencies;
- Disseminate information to women on how to receive assistance; and,
- Raise issues regarding law enforcement and promote gender awareness

Emergency telephone numbers:

Fire – 01

Police – 022

Ambulance – 03/033

How to reach us

Press and Public Information Office

49 Krtsanisi str

Tbilisi, 0140

Republic of Georgia

press@eumm.eu

www.eumm.eu

The campaign is supported by:

the State Fund for Protection and Assistance of Victims of Human Trafficking, the Gori Gender Resource Center, UNIFEM, UNFPA, UNDP, UNHCR, Norwegian Refugee Council, Georgian Young Lawyers Association (GYLA), “Sakhli”-Advice Center for women, the Anti-Violence Network of Georgia, “Saphari”, Women’s association “Consent”, the Organization of Women Democrats of Samtskhe-Javakheti, the Association of Young Economist of Georgia, Caucasus Women’s Network, Union of Wives of Invalids and Lost Warriors of Georgia

The European Union Monitoring Mission in Georgia

Gender awareness campaign

Where to receive assistance

Where to receive assistance

The following organizations are working for the achievement of greater gender equality and women's empowerment, please do not hesitate to contact them.

Under the auspices of the Parliamentary Council for Gender Equality, the Gori Gender Resource Centre coordinates different initiatives that aim to increase women's participation in decision-making processes and enhance gender equality.

If you would like to learn about its services and activities, if you have a personal problem caused by the conflict that you would like to share or if you feel discriminated against please call the Gender Hotline of the Resource Centre at: 8 (270) 26645

No-one has the right to abuse you!

Should you require psychological consultation and rehabilitation or in case of physical, verbal or sexual abuse, please contact:

NGO Sakhli at 895 232102;8(22)989080
NGO Anti-Violence Network of Georgia at 8(22) 398934; 8(270) 77945
NGO Saphari at 8(22) 225402/220689
NGO Organization of Women Democrats of Samtskhe-Javakheti at 871 548344; 871 182029; 899 548344

Should you require legal counselling, please contact:

Legal Advice Centres of the Ministry of Justice at 8(270) 78836
Public Defender's Office at 8(270) 995898
NRC/ICLA at 8(22) 379115; 8(270) 73886; 8(231) 52502; 8(215) 52638
GYLA at 8(270) 79842
Caucasus Women's Network at 8 (22) 988 695
IDP Women's Association Consent at 8(22) 344982; 899 399028
Union of Wives of Invalids and Lost Warriors of Georgia at 8 (22) 102920
Anti-Violence Network of Georgia at 8(22) 398934; 8(270) 77945

Be aware of the risk of human trafficking, do not easily trust people, who promise good jobs and salaries abroad, double check such offers at the hotline of the State Fund for Protection and Assistance of Victims of Human Trafficking 100229

You are also welcome to call 100229 if you require psychological or legal assistance or if you are in need of a shelter in case of human trafficking.

If women in your neighbourhood need gynaecological examination, ultrasound screening, and consultation with a gynaecologist on their reproductive health and family planning issues, please, contact UNFPA Reproductive Health Mobile Team 899 73 99 22. The Mobile Team distributes as well contraceptives free of charge.

If you would like to receive training in the starting and management of small business please contact the Association of Young Economist of Georgia at 1 Mshvidoba Avenue, Gori tel: 8(270) 77080; Tbilisi, 35 Orbeliani street, Tel: 8(22) 990443 / 922839